

Accountant Associate

One of Strategic Staffing Solutions clients an international FinTech company is looking for an Accountant to join a growing team of dedicated professionals who value development in a company.

Responsibilities :

We'll be looking to you to compile financial data for use in maintaining accounting records and perform standard bookkeeping functions. Detail oriented and organized, you will sort, verify, and match data such as bills, invoices, and bank statements. You will have the opportunity to work cross-functionally with teams across the organization.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree (or senior student) in Business Management, Economy, Finance, or Accounting
- Proficient in Microsoft Excel
- Attention to details
- Comfortable working in a fast-paced, highly structured, deadline-driven environment
- Experience in accounting is advantageous
- Great English language skills

The Benefits:

- Life insurance and accident insurance from the first day of work.
- Private health insurance (after a three-month probationary period).
- Additional days of off - "Personal days" (after the first year the company gives 1 extra day, after the second year the company gives 2 extra days off and the number increases up till 5 "Personal days").
- 8 hours per year for volunteering, paid by the employer.
- Bravo Recognition system. The employee can receive Bravo points for which they can purchase valuable goods in a special online store.
- Learning Opportunities
- Salary from 1400 Eur/Gross.

Confidentiality guaranteed. Only selected candidates will be informed.

S3 Privacy Statement